EIGHT AT THE FINISH

INDIANAPOLIS SCORES A BIG BATCH OF RUNS IN THE NINTH.

Manck Goes All to Pieces and Lets His Old Club Win in a Walk -Results Elsewhere.

No surprises have electrified the Western League world the past week. No delightful shivers have titillated the spines of the loyal, but sad-hearted crowds that have royally supported the home team since its return for a long series of home games. Indianapolis is traveling along at her customary ice-wagon jog. Two games a week is just about our gait. Such a luxury as a except it should be of Manager hard-luck players, does not seem possibility. The rest of the teams have apparently also settled down to their several gaits. From present apthe season will continue with the clubs close to the relative positions they now occupy. Indianapolis should be commended for doing as well as she has with only eight players. Nature never intended that a team without a shortstop, no change catcher and only two reliable pitchers figure in the race for a base-The Western clubs have East on their own grounds result that the men from the Populistic country have outclassed their more intellectual but less brutal opponents. Sioux City can hardly be dislodged from first place, while Kansas City and Minneapolis may drop a game now and then, but still keep well up to the top. The standing after yesterday's games, in which for once the East laid aside conscientious scruples and batted the wadding out of things, is as fol-

Indianapolis Batted Out Eight Runs

in the Ninth Inning. Indianapolis defeated Kansas City

terday by a big margin, though the score was close up to the ninth inning. The home team led from the start and was never headed in the race, though the visitthe close of the game. In the ninth inning Mauck, who was doing his best to lay out his old companions, went all to pieces and Indianapolis scored eight runs, five of them earned. This, of course, settled matters, and, though Manning's men scored two more in the ninth on a scratch hit that struck a stone and bounded over Mills's head, it was far from being enough, and the game ended 15 to 8 in favor of Indianapolis. There were 1,500 people out and they shouted long and loud in the ninth It was only the magnificent way in which the Kansas City out-fielders backed Mauck up that saved him from being hit very hard. The score does not by any means better all-around playing and heavy bathad four brilliant catches in center; two from Leldy's bat going nearly to the fence, and one looking like a home run, while Hernon in left and Ulrich in right accepted almost equally as difficult chances. The latter caught a line drive from Veach's bat in the sixth inning almost off the ground after a long run for it. The fact that the ex-Indianapolis pitcher was pounded opportunely is evident from the ten earned runs to the credit of his old comrades. Phillips pitched an effective game throughout. The home run by Niles in the sixth inning was a rank scratch, and would have been a single had the grounds been in the condition they should be. Dairymple was ready to field the ball, which struck one of the holes in center field and bounded away over his head. A similar accident in the ninth inning is responsible for the visitors' last two runs, Nichols's grounder, which Mills stood ready to field, taking an ugly bound over his head. As two men were out, this would have ordinarily retired the side.

Kansas City did nothing until the fourth, when Hernon got a base on balls and was batted in by a single and a sacrifice. In the fifth the visitors chalked up two, Sharp getting a base on balls. Manning a triple and Veach dropping Ulrich's fly. In the sixth Nichols's single and Niles's queer home run added two more, while in the seventh the visitors crawled dangerously near Indianapolis by Hernon and Nichols hitting safe and Mills's muff of Westlake's throw to head the former off at second. It was a close pull when Indianapolis sailed into the ninth. Dalrymple opened with a safe hit to left and Gray followed with one along the foul line in the same direction. Sharp threw Motz's grounder wild, filling the bases. Mills flew to Sharp, and then Mauck went up in the air. He sent Henry to first on balls, forcing Dalrymple in, and followed suit with Leidy, Gray walking home. Veach then drove the ball to right, bringing Motz and Henry home, and Westlake followed with a single to left, scoring Lefdy. Phillips placed another in right field for three bases, sending in two runs, and scored on Dalrymple's sacrifice. Gray was retired at first from short. In the last half Veach fumbled Manning's grounder and Ulrich hit safe to left Hernon sacrificed and Klusman flew to Leidy. Nichols hit an easy one to Mills, but the ball bounded wrong, two men scoring. Niles flew to Dalrymple and the game

Indianapolis was first at bat, and Dal-rymple started off with a safe hit to right.

Gray got a base on balls, but Motz forced him at second, stealing the base himself, Mills hit to Sharp, who fielded the ball to the plate too late to catch Dalrymple.

Indianapolis tried Veach, an old League player, at short yesterday, and though he is credited with three errors, he handled himself as if he knew what he was in the game for. He hit the ball hard and his errors were apparently the result of a lack of practice more than anything else. Leidy did some good work in left, and figured in what would have been a double play but for the unfortunate fact that his accurate throw struck the base runner in the back and enabled him to get back to first in safety. Dairymple played a steady game all around, while Westlake was as usual brilliant in his catching. He had a finger split during the game, but pluckily continued and the injury did not interfere with his good work. Score. Indianapolis. A.B. R. H. O. A. E.

NATIONAL LEAGUE.

Baltimore Strengthens Her Position

at the Head of the Column. A week ago Baltimore climbed into first place in the National League race and has been advancing ever since, Cleveland having fallen back rapidly. The close race between Pittsburg, Boston, Cleveland and Philadelphia, all of which have been grouped within thirty points for a week, furnishes a highly interesting fight. Next to these the struggle on the part of Capt. Anson's men to get into last place has been most thrilling. Friday, Chicago caught Washington asleep and stole the Senators' "tail-holt." The remarks in Chicago papers on this achievement were pathetic in dangerously near them towards the extreme. The clubs closed the week as

INDIANAPOLIS SIGNS SHIELDS.

Milwaukee's Captain Comes Into the Hoosier Camp-Cincinnati's Action. The Indianapolis team has a new second baseman, and his name is Danny Shields, late captain of the Milwaukees. They let him go, and Manager Sharsig signed him by wire last evening. Shields was on Sharsig's original list of players, and is a good, strong infielder, as well as a hitter. He couldn't get along with Manager Cushman up at Milwaukee, and they concluded to separate. If Motz is recalled by Cincinnati, as reported, Veach may go to first and Shields to short, or Mills may be let out. Shields will return with the team tomorrow and don an Indianapolis uniform in the afternoon. Sharsig is after two or three other good men, one a pitcher. It is probable that after the present week Cross will have to join Cincinnati. He will pitch this afternoon against Kansas City, and remain here all week, possibly all season, if Comisky can be induced to let him stay. Motz is anxious to remain here, and is using every effort to do so. If he should have to go Cincinnati may send McCarthy to take his place. If Motz has his way, however, he will continue he Sharsig's men went to Milwaukee last night for a game there to-day. Camp will pitch and Westlake catch. It is a long jump for a single game, but a big crowd will make it pay.

Baseball Notes. The Hoosiers and Marotts will play at Fairview Park this afternoon The Kansas Citys conclude their series here to-morrow. Daniels will pitch for them and Cross for Indianapolis. Sloux

The resolution was adopted unanimously.

AN INTERESTING RACE

EXCITING CONTEST FOR THE TOBOG-GAN-SLIDE HANDICAP.

Correction Takes the Prize from Dozen Other Fast Horses-Results at Latonia and St. Louis.

NEW YORK, June 9 .- A finer day and a faster track could not have been desired for to-day's racing at Morris Park, and the excellent card brought out a large attendance, probably greater than ever before this year, and the racing was excellent. The chief interest was in the Toboggan-slide handicap, in which the best sprinters in America were engaged. Only two of the fifteen colors on the card declined the issue, and these were Wah Jim and Derfargilla. There was a long delay at the start, but Rowe finally got them off in good order and Correction jumped at once to the front. She carried them along to the quarter pole in 221/4 seconds, and to the half in 451/2, and had every one of them digging their toes in at that point. Littlefield then took an easy pull on the mare, and she galloped home an easy winner in 1:101/2. In the last twenty yards Stonenell shot out of the bunch and challenged Rochefort for the place, but lost it by the shortest of heads. It was a beautiful con-

The other feature was the Larchmont stakes, in which Gotham, the top weight, did not start, and Keenan was a 1 to 1 shot. The Morris pair, Mirage and Paladin, led all the way, and it looked as if the former had a sure victory, but she stepped on something and pulled up lame in the third place. Paladin then went out and won from Counter Tenor, who is not anywhere near as good as he was at Gravesend. Results: First Race-Five furlongs. LOUIS, June 9.-The weather was clear and warm and the track fast to-day, giving the crowd at the fair grounds an opportunity to witness fine sport. Fast Time at Latonia.

CINCINNATI, June 9.-A fast track, a clear sky and five thousand people combined to make the fifteenth day at Latonia a thorough success. Four favorites won, and, though there were two big dumps on Queenlike II and Cyclone, the crowd came out ahead. CATHOLIC SUMMER SCHOOL.

The Enterprise Encouraged and Blessed by Monsignor Satolli.

NEW YORK, June 9 .- In its next issue the Catholic Reading Circle Review will say that during his recent visit to New York, Mgr. Satolli, the legate, gave a private interview to the Rev. Joseph H. Mc-Mahon, director of the League of the Sacred Heart, in the cathedral here, and chairman of the executive committee of the Catholic Summer School of America. During the course of the interview the subject of the summer school came up. Mgr. Satolli said he had heard of that institution of intellectual training, and expressed a wish to learn fully its objects and methods. He listened attentively to the explanation offered by Father McMahon, who described, in detail, the history, the objects and the usefulness of the school. Monsignor Satolli encouraged him and blessed the work and said:

"From the experience that I have gathered in America I do believe that it is the country of all others in which Catholic truth may have the largest field of action. We only need freedom of speech, and this We only need freedom of speech, and this is most ample in America. But the exposition of truth must be plain and clear. I regret that sometimes the truth has been set forth incompletely. Truth possesses in itself the power to reach the intellect; it needs only to be presented clearly and entirely. It will then be accepted not only by Catholics but also by Protestants and infidels. I mean by those who are outside the pale of the church by reason of their honest convictions and not on account of the pale of the church by reason of their honest convictions and not on account of systematic opposition, prejudice or bigotry. Those who are influenced by the latter motives are many centuries behind modern progress. And I would be very much pleased to see the Catholic summer school incorporate with its objects another point of very great importance, namely, the presentation to the American people of the precise idea of the relations by which is established the harmony between church and state so much to be desired and so fruitful in good. In this matter I find a great want of knowledge in America. I am speaking about what is commonly called public ecclesiastical law, which precisely deals with the foundation, or, better. the essential constitution of the church and the state, and determines the limits of action of both authorities in such a way as to present the conflicts that, unfortunately, disturb social peace and retard social progress." In response to an invitation to attend the next session of the school, Mgr. Satolli replied that he would be pleased to consider the invitation if his engagements would

LEE SMITH SHOT AND BADLY WOUNDED IN A CRAP GAME.

That Is His Story, but the Police Think Henry Pine Did the Shooting-Smith's Reticence.

Last night, shortly before 10 o'clock, two colored men, greatly under the influence of liquor, so much so that they were unable to give a good account of themselves, called at the City Dispensary and asked for a physician. One of them, giving his name as Lee Smith, removed his clothing and showed a wound in his abdomen, on the left side, directly below the ribs. The City Dispensary physicians at once saw that there was probably a good start for a murder case, and attempted to question the man, who was gradually growing weaker, before he was too far gone to answer questions. The man said that he and his companion were in a "crap" game on Indiana avenue, near the canal, and got into a dispute with one of the other players as to whose money was on the line, when the latter drew a revolver and fired several shots. One of the bullets struck Smith, making the above wound. He, with the ald of his companion, left the place and managed to reach the City Dispensary. The men said they dld not know who fired the shot, but it is the opinion of the physicians that they did know, but were withholding the name.

The wounded man's clothing and his skin above and below the wound were powder burned, showing that whoever fired the shot was standing close by when he fired. Smith was placed on the operating bench and the physicians probed for the bullet. However, they could not locate it, and they gave their attention to reviving the man with the intention of having him removed to the City Hospital. When Smith recovered sufficiently to walk about he said he did not want to go to the City Hospital, but that he would go home. The physicians then offered to remove him in the city ambulance. This aid he also refused. When asked where he lived he replied incohorently, and the physicians then gave their attention to his companion with the view of getting information out of him. The man was too drunk, however, to give any information, and the physicians then talked with Smith again. Smith replied evasively that he lived in the neighborhood of West street and Indiana avenue, but that he could not exactly remember where. The physicians seeing that the men purposely evaded their questions, allowed them to depart. As Smith left the door he was very weak and staggered Soon after their departure, Sergeants Stout and Kurtz called hurriedly and asked if a wounded man had been there. The physicians told them the above facts. The officers stated that they thought Smith was shot by Henry Pine, who was at the City Hospital suffering with wounds, as he claimed, received at the hands of an unknown man on the canal bank near the "Yellow" bridge a short time before. The officers stated their belief that Pine and Smith got into a dispute, when Smith drew a knife on Pine and cut him, whereupon the latter retallated by shooting him. Pine, however, said to the City Hospital phy-sicians that he had no weapon and knew nothing about any one being shot in the above neighborhood. The police were hunting for Smith in the vicinity of Indiana avenue, but at a late hour had failed to locate him. It is the opinion of the City Dispensary physicians that Smith could not have gone very far before he became exhausted from his wound. From his condition, when he left the City Dispensary, they thought that, possibly, the wound might prove fatal.
